UNIVERSITY

George M. and Hilda G. Shrake Endowed Scholarship

This scholarship is intended for incoming freshman from all Detroit public and private schools who demonstrate financial need. Only students who have applied and been accepted to Michigan State University by March 31 of their high school senior year will receive consideration.

The value of the George M. and Hilda G. Shrake Endowed Scholarship is a minimum $2,000 for the freshman year. The scholarship will be renewed for all recipients who maintain a GPA above 2.5 and who request renewal in writing. This request should also include comments on their experiences at MSU and their current thoughts regarding plans for the coming school year.

Complete this application and attach an essay of no more than one page which describes your experiences and achievements in high school. Also share your thoughts and plans for study at MSU, and include comments about your career interests. Please include your name on both the application and the essay, and be sure to proofread both documents.
